

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Third Week of Lent (March 23-29, 2025) 25.12

Third Sunday of Lent

First Reading: The mysterious name of God is revealed to Moses: YaHWeH – or “I am who I am”. The love of the all-powerful God is made known to Moses in a personal way: he is called by name and given a mission. God notices our suffering, too, and wants to bring us freedom.

Responsorial Psalm 102: The Lord is compassion and love.

Second Reading: St Paul remembers the story of the 40-year exodus led by Moses. Not everyone completed the journey to the promised land. Lent is our invitation to renew our commitment to walk more closely the ways of the Lord.

Gospel: Jesus is brought up to date with the tragic events of his time. We are equally aware of the bad news of our times, including geo-political conflicts around the world. Jesus’ reaction: we must all act responsibly. The parable of the unfruitful fig tree reminds us that, even in cases of ongoing failure, we should make yet another effort.

- The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated on Saturday evening at 6.30pm in the Reconciliation Room.
- At Masses next weekend (and every other weekend) a Children’s Liturgy of the Word will take place.

*Grant To Us, O Lord, A Heart Renewed;
Recreate In Us Your Own Spirit, Lord!
Behold, The Days Are Coming,
Says The Lord Our God,
When I Will Make A New Covenant With
The House Of Israel.*

Let's all join together in Communion sweet,
Walk, walk, in the light.
And love one another 'til the Saviour we meet,
Walk, walk, in the light. Walk in the light, x 3
Walk in the light of the Lord.
Jesus died on Calvary, walk, walk, in the light
To save the lost like you and me, Walk, walk in ...
