

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Eighth Week of Ordinary Time (May 26 – June 1, 2024) 24.21

Trinity Sunday

The faith of Christians is rooted in the mystery of the Trinity. God is the creator and Father of all; God is also the Son who came among us to save humanity from its failings; today, God is with us as the Holy Spirit, who brings us into the mystery of God's presence.

First Reading: Moses tells the people that God has been revealed to them and by keeping the Lord's commandments they will honour his name and be at right relationships with each other.

Psalm 32 - A song that praises the majesty of God.

Second Reading: The Holy Spirit places us in the same relationship that Jesus had with the Father; With Christ we can say to God, "Abba, Father."

Gospel: Most (though not all) of the disciples give to Jesus the same worship that is due to God. Jesus commissions his disciples to go and make disciples of all the nations.

Mass Times this Week

Monday – Thursday	Killavullen	9.00am
No Mass on Friday
Saturday (May 25): Vigil Mass	Killavullen	7.00pm
Sunday: Pentecost Sunday	Annakisha	10.00am
	Killavullen	11.30am

- The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated on Saturday evening at 6.30pm in the Reconciliation Room or at any time requested.
- Children's Liturgies of the Word take place at Masses this weekend.

Resting in God's Embrace - Recently Deceased, Maura O'Mahony, née Buckley (Salisbury & Ballygriffin) and her nephew Fr John Warnaby (Birmingham) Anniversaries Trevor Larkin (Slumber Hill).

Collections Last weekend - Go raibh maith agaibh

	Annakisha	Killavullen
Weekly Offering	€290	€510
Episcopal Conference	€450	combined

This is the day (x2)
That the Lord has made (x2)
Let us rejoice (x2) And be glad in it (x2)
This is the day that the Lord has made
Let us rejoice and be glad in it
This is the day (x2)
That the Lord has made

Glory and praise to our God.
Who alone gives light to our days.
Many are the blessing he bears
To those who trust in his ways.
*We the daughters and sons of him -
Who built the valleys and plains.
Praise and wonder our God has done,*

This weekend: The recessional collection will be the semi-annual collection for the Sacristans of our two churches. We thank Anne, Marie and Cals for their dedicated service to our parish and for making our churches places where the Mass and other liturgies are celebrated with both reverence and grace. There is an envelope for the sacristan's collections included in the annual box for donations for registered households, and also special envelopes at the back of churches.

Killavullen Community Council: A Community Café will take place on Tuesday, May 28 between 10.30am-12.30pm in the Community Centre. All are welcome.

Camp Creideamh Faith Camps for teenagers, boys and girls aged 13 to 18, will take place in Knockadoon (East Cork) over the dates 9th – 15th June. Activities will include catechesis, prayer, sports, hillwalking, kayaking, swimming, music, arts and crafts and other activities. For booking: www.campcreideamh.ie or call Fr Eamon Roche: 086 9972539

Thought for the Day: One of the key challenges today is that of individuality – when 'I' comes first, without thought of the other. I'm not surprised that we have lonely young people and lonely elderly people; it's not surprising we have racist divisions. If 'I' is all that matters, I don't need to worry about connecting to anyone else, or understanding anyone else, or being on the side of anyone else. Thinking about the Trinity brings us into a different way of thinking about the world. When we enter into the mystery of the relationality of God, we can no longer exclude people. All are equally loved and valued by the Trinity. (Elizabeth Welch)

BonMot: Look back and thank God; look forward and trust God.