

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Twelfth Week of Ordinary Time (June 23-29, 2024) 24.24

Eleventh Sunday -

First Reading: Job had begun life with many blessings but then suffered great affliction. At the end of it all he understand life as mystery and believe in a loving God whose ways are above and beyond our ways.
Psalms 106 - The glory of creation moves us to praise to the creator.
Second Reading: Jesus died for us so that all of creation could be reconciled with God and be renewed.

Gospel: Jesus is shown with all the power over creation reserved to God alone. (A roundabout way of affirming Christ's divine nature). Jesus calms the stormy waters of the lives of those who place their trust in him.

Next Friday, June, 28, a Day-Trip Faith Camp for Children will travel to Ardmore following a visit to the Carmelite Monastery in Tallow. Children who have celebrated the sacrament of Confirmation this year are also very welcome. The day will be led by leaders of the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Booking forms are available in the sacristys and should be returned this weekend.

BonMot: Today is the tomorrow I worried about yesterday.

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
 Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
 part of the body, the Church of God.
 As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
