

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Twenty Sixth Week of Ordinary Time (Sept. 27 - October 3, 2024) 24.37

Twenty Sixth Sunday: World Day of Migrants and Refugees.

First Reading: The seventy elders from the time of Moses becomes seventy-two when Eldad and Medad share in the ministry. We should not become possessive about our role in the world, but let others join the good work.

Psalms 18 – From presumption, O Lord, restrain your servant.

Second Reading: The letter of Saint James continues its theme of positive discrimination towards the poorest and most vulnerable in the world.

Gospel: Today's Gospel reflects on what it means to be Church: it means not being closed to recognising goodness outside our own group; it also means dealing with scandals that occur within the group in a decisive way.

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
One with each other, Jesus is here.
Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
part of the body, the Church of God.
As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
One with each other, Jesus is here.

*Faithful is the Lord our King
Let us all in glory sing. Ever praise in word and song: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.
God of life and God of seed; God of nations
lands and creeds;
God of heaven, God of earth,
God made man in lowly birth.*

Pre-Baptism Meeting: A meeting for parents preparing to celebrate a Baptism in their Family will take place in the Parish Office on Monday, September 30 at 7.30pm
