

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Thirtieth Week of Ordinary Time (October 27- November 2, 2024) 24.41

Thirtieth Sunday The Lord rescues us from our distress

1st Reading: The Book of Jeremiah was written during the exile of Israel into Babylon. He was a prophet who “comforted my people” with the message that God would save those who remained faithful.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord has delivered us. We give thanks.

2nd Reading: The Son of God was able to “sympathise” fully with the human experience; he brings us into God’s presence.

Gospel: Bartimaeus, a blind beggar sitting on the side of the road outside Jericho was able to see with the eyes of faith and recognise Jesus as the “Son of David”, the expected Messiah. Once healed, he cast off the robe of his old identity and followed Jesus. From what bondage might we be delivered, and so become a free and faithful follower of the Lord?

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
 Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
 part of the body, the Church of God.
 As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.

*Faithful is the Lord our King
 Let us all in glory sing. Ever praise in word and song: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.
 God of life and God of seed; God of nations
 lands and creeds;
 God of heaven, God of earth,
 God made man in lowly birth.*

A Motorist’s Prayer (by Geraldine Binnall):

Give me a ready hand, a watchful eye,
 That none me suffer hurt as I pass by.
 Lord, thou givest life – I pray no a ct of mine
 May take away or mar the gift of thine.
 Teach me to use my car for others’ need,
 Nor miss through lack of wit or love of speed,
 The beauty of Thy world – that this I may,
 With joy and courtesy go on my way.
