

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Thirty Second Week of Ordinary Time (November 3-9, 2024) 24.42

Thirty Second Sunday The Lord rescues us from all our distress
1st Reading: The widow made a little scone from her meal and brought it to Elijah. Her generosity to the holy man was richly blessed. Hospitality brings a blessing to the giver as well as the receiver.
Responsorial Psalm: Coming to worship together, our soul gives praise to the Lord
2nd Reading: Christ's self-sacrifice was given once and for all; in the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life. As members of his living body we join our destiny to that of him.
Gospel: Our religious observance should be matched by small acts of kindness carried out with a generous heart.

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
 Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
 part of the body, the Church of God.
 As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.

Faithful is the Lord our King
Let us all in glory sing. Ever praise in word and song: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.
 God of life and God of seed; God of nations
 lands and creeds;
 God of heaven, God of earth,
 God made man in lowly birth.

The Church dedicates November to prayer for those who have died. November Offerings for Masses for the Repose of the Holy Souls (which are offered monthly) can be made at this time using the envelopes that came with your annual Offertory Box or those available at church doorways. You may like to include a list of those you would like to be remembered. On November 23, the 7.00pm Mass will be dedicated to those who have died in our Parish over the past year. We give them back to you, O Lord, who first gave them to us; and as you did not lose them in the giving so we do not lose them in the return. Not as the world gives do you give, O Lord. For what is yours is ours also, if we belong to you. Life is unending because love is undying and the boundaries of this life are but an horizon - an horizon is but the limit of our vision. Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see further. Strengthen our faith that we may see beyond the horizon. And while you prepare a place for us as you have promised, Make us ready for that eternal home; that where you are, we may be also, with those we have loved. Amen. (Bede Jarett, O.P.)

Ballygown National School will hold a fun run/walk on the new N73 at 12.00noon on Saturday, November 17 at 12.00 noon. See: ww.ballygown.ie

Bon Mot: God understands our prayers, even when we can't find the words to say them.
